

Howdy Folks,

Thought it time to have another reunion; a picnic at Lake Chabot Park in Castro Valley. The Attachment has map linkage to the park website and my email.

There is a large BBQ pit, 8 picnic tables, and a large lawn area, so bring a blanket, picnic lunch or BBQ food and a Frisbee to join in a casual outing with friends.

Please spread the word so folks that do not know may be informed.

The cost is simple: the Park charges a $5.00 parking fee or park on Lake Chabot Road and walk-in for free.

The reservations are made for Turtle Picnic Area for Sept. 17, 2006 10AM-6PM. We will supply Charcoal & Lighter for the BBQ. The rest is on you,

So Be There or Be Square...

Be sure to RSVP, so we have enough charcoal,
